Biography

Paul Marcellino was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania in 1954. He attended the Stella Elkins Tyler School of Fine Art at Temple University where he received his Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in 1976. He later earned his Masters Degree in Fine Art at the Graduate School of Figurative Art at the New York Academy of Art in Manhattan.

He has since exhibited his work in group and solo shows throughout the United States and has received numerous awards. He has served as juror for regional and national exhibitions, and has received funding for his work from Arts institutions including the Putnam Arts Council, The Upper Catskill Community Center for the Arts, and the New York State Council For the Arts.

He has taught art at public and private schools and institutes throughout the Northeast for over thirty years, including courses and workshops at the Pratt Institute, the New York Academy of Art, The Metropolitan Museum of Art, The New York State Summer Institutes among others. He recently retired from the Niskayuna School District , where he taught courses in ceramics and studio arts. Since then he has focused on figurative sculpture and painting at his home studio.

He lives with his wife and family in Worcester, New York.
