

Rebecca Roebig

Artist Statement

My photography takes the angles and subtle textures of daily life.

It serves as a moment to slow down.

There is always something hidden in my art that I didn't know was there.

My art is soothing even when it is abrupt and jagged.

When it is soft, there is turbulence.

I take photos that solve problems within my mind.